Invitation to STANFO meeting

Social Responsibility

Monday 10. October 2005 1300 – 1500

Venue: Teknologibedriftenes Landsforening, Oscarsgt. 20, Oslo (hovedstyresalen)

Admission is free for anybody

ISO, the International Organization for Standardization, has decided to launch the development of an international Standard providing guidelines for Social Responsibility (SR). The guidance standard will be published in 2008 as ISO 26000 and be voluntary to use.

Through our membership in IFAN, we have the privilege of presenting Dr. Wolfram Heger from DaimlerChrysler AG, who will speak about Social Responsibility and how an international company as DaimlerChrysler AG approaches these issues. As counterparts from the Norwegian industry, director Arvid Halvorsen in Hydro will speak about their priorities concerning Social Responsibility, and Senior advisor Erik Lundebj in NHO will speak of consequences of the new standard for practices and reputation.

Program:

Dr. Wolfram Heger, DaimlerChrysler AG
Social Responsibility – ISO standardization and the DaimlerChrysler AG approach

Coffee break

Director Arvid Halvorsen, Hydro
Corporate Social Responsibility in Hydro – Overview and current priorities

Senior advisor Erik Lundebj, NHO
Social Responsibility – what will a new ISO standard mean for the practice and reputation of business and industry

Registration:
